Election Proclamation.

I, D. W. Nail, sheriff of the county of Dickinson in the state of Kansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me as such sheriff, do hereby proclaim and make known that on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, A. D. 1889, a general election will be held in the various election districts and voting precincts of said county of Dickinson, commencing at 8 o'clock in the morning and closing at 6 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, for the purpose of choosing the following county and township officers, to-wit:

One Treasurer.
One County Clerk.
One Register of Deeds.
One Sheriff.
One Surveyor.
One Coroner.
The County High School Trustees.
One County Commissioner of the Third District.

And in each township:
One Trustee.
One Clerk.
One Treasurer.
One Road Overseer of each Road District.
Two Justices of the Peace.
Two Constables.

Witness my hand at my office at Abilene in said county of Dickinson and state of Kansas, this 10th day of October, A. D. 1889.

D. W. NAIL,
Sheriff of Dickinson county, Kansas.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Treasurer,
W. L. NIXON.
For County Clerk,
M. H. BERT.
For Register of Deeds,
W. D. NICHOLS.
For Sheriff,
D. W. NAIL.
For Surveyor,
A. C. ROMIG.
For Coroner,
E. KELLER.
For High School Trustee,
W. M. SHERWOOD.
For Commissioner—Third Dist.,
JOHN W. HOOVER.

THE B's seem to be busy in the boodle world. Bessey and Binder have both skipped into the unfathomable regions of the somewhere.

IN answer to Henri Watterson's question, "What shall we do with Kansas?" the Emporia Republican replies, "You might try imitating her with good effect."

THE republicans of the two strongest whisky counties in the state—Atchison and Sedgwick—voted down resubmission resolutions. Kansas seems to be well grounded in her faith yet.

THE new states evidently do not mean to give women a fair chance in the race of life. Woman suffrage and prohibition have no places in either of the four new states.—(Parsons Sun.)

What is the matter of North Dakota in the way of prohibition?

THE state board of regents seems to have been content with shirking its responsibility and will hibernate for the winter; meanwhile the university will struggle along in its present apoplexy state.

THE farmers were agreeably surprised to have the general and heavy rain that has fallen this week. It will help the newly sprouting wheat and put the crop on the way to a successful harvest next June.

It is proposed to change the date of Thanksgiving to the last of October. Republicans won't favor it; they want to rejoice over election and as they win often than lose they prefer to give thanks in November.

THERE are always two reports on the man who goes to California; the first is that he has made a million—the next one is that he has lost the little he took with him, and is working at his trade.—(Atchison Globe.)

Or else, which is more likely to be true, that he wants to work at his trade but cannot find anything to do.

THE McPherson Republican complains bitterly because the audience at an Uncle Tom's Cabin show cheered lustily when Little Eva died. We can see nothing disreputable in that. The audience perhaps thought that she was really dead and that they would not be troubled with the show again.—(Lawrence Tribune.)

THE custom of flying the American flag over the school houses of the land is a beautiful and patriotic one. The REFLECTOR would be glad to see the stars and stripes floating in the Kansas breeze from the school buildings of this city and county and believes that it would be appreciated alike by pupils and patrons. No city in Kansas has yet adopted the plan; let Abilene be first.

ONE year ago the country from one end to the other was ablaze with bonfires, a-flutter with bunting and re-echoing with cheers for Harrison or Cleveland. Today the excitement is forgotten and the government runs along as smoothly as though it had been in the present hands for a quarter century. We are a curious people—one day alive with excitement, another quiet and unimpassioned. But through it all the love of country is strong and "the government at Washington still lives."

Free Trade and Trusts.

IN view of the large amount of attention at present given the matter of trusts it is amusing how much rot is turned loose by the democratic press in its attempt to fasten the responsibility for them upon the protective tariff and republicanism. The democratic writers do not seem to think it necessary to use any reason in the consideration of the problem or show any judgment in the treatment of their theme. The boldest of statements, unsubstantiated by fact is sufficient for their purpose. For instance take the following from the Detroit Free Press as a sample:

In this country the tariff gives a wide field for the operation of trusts. Take wool cotton. The American manufacturers are protected by a duty equivalent on an average to 46 per cent. ad valorem. They can form a combination and put up prices, and the tariff binds them in extorting those prices from the people. They are wholly indifferent to any other interests than their own.

Nobody has been heard of late years to complain of the high price of wool cotton. Nobody has been saying it was an extortion. The Detroit Free Press man is just as free to open a wool cotton thread works as anybody else, if he wants to, although, so far as the profit is concerned, he probably won't. But the REFLECTOR readers are perfectly capable of seeing the fallacy of the argument.

A free trader would have us make something that we could make "to advantage," as compared with England, and supply the market of both countries, while England supplied both countries, say, with cotton thread. In other words, the production of two staples would be concentrated, one in this country, the other in England. Now, would it not be much easier to form a trust if all the production for two widely remote markets were concentrated in one country than if each country supplied its home market? It would be easier for England to form a trust in the article that we did not make, and for us to form a trust in an article that England did not make, and yet consumed, than it would be to form a trust in either article in a country that manufactured both.

Is it not also evident that the possession of a foreign market, as compared with a more especial cultivation of the home market by a producer, is a temptation to trusts? The stimulation of home production by duties that protect against cheaper foreign manufacture is generally an insurance of domestic competition that prevents trusts. All around, it is plain that protection is more unfavorable to trusts than free trade is.

Political Chat.

Take it straight—the republican ticket this fall.

The Hope Dispatch voices a mighty truth when it says: "Vote and work for the solid republican ticket and you will always be glad of it."

Solomon Sentinel: About three weeks to the fall election, and everything running as smoothly as the most rabid republican could desire.

No matter how much Sheeran of the democratic candidates is done, or how many Hanks of tape are used, the democratic ticket will never get there.

There is not a man on the republican ticket who will receive less than 500 majority on Nov. 5th.—(Salina Republican.)

Same here, Brady, only we are going to make it 1,000.

Enterprise Independent: Walter Nichols, of Abilene, was a visitor in town last Friday, looking after his interests in politics at the coming election. Waiter will poll a large vote in Enterprise and vicinity as he is well known here; and the fact that he has made the best recorder the county ever had makes him sure of success on the 5th. of next month.

Hope Dispatch: Some of the democratic candidates are rustling hard, in the belief that the republicans, thinking they are sure of the whole ticket, will not work or turn out and a democrat may thus be elected by republican neglect. We hope every republican will not only turn out and vote, but will do all he can for the party and pile up such a majority that no democrat will again be found who will accept a nomination, even when "forced upon him." Let no republican neglect his duty. Remember democrats alone cannot elect, if republicans vote.

TRUE AND TRIED MEN.

Despite all the opposition organs can say about the candidates on the republican ticket, it is apparent to all they are not losing prestige, nor will they be any diminution in the large majority vote prognosticated, at least 1,000, when the polls close on Nov. 5th. The people have had a trying time financially, the last few years, and are determined to look after the true interests of the county by putting into public offices true and tried men. The men on the republican ticket are widely known for their intelligence, educational qualities, for their unblemished characters and as good citizens, of whom no ill can be truthfully said.—(Solomon Sentinel.)

Northeast Dickinson.

MT. CENIS, Oct. 16.—[Special correspondence]—The wheat looks well but is in need of rain.

Mr. Shoffner has about five hundred bushels of corn cribbed.

Rev. Foster preached at the Zion church. His talk was the need of missionary work.

Mr. Medaris still continues to make molasses at the rate of 60 gallons a day.

Charley Shoffner is the champion corn husker in the vicinity; he can shuck 100 bushels a day.

The library will open up this coming week at the Bayless school house.

Mr. Blair took a load of hogs to Junction City on last Monday.

A revival meeting has commenced at New Salem by Rev. Foster.

Mr. Meek is getting better very slowly.

Mr. Wm. Fox has gone east to see his mother who is very low with the fever.

The farmers are preparing for an early winter.

Mrs. Shoffner is very ill with fever.

Dr. Hewett says he is on the go day and night.

Notice to Hunters.

No hunting or trespassing allowed on the s. e. 1/4 of s. w. 1/4 and s. 1/4 of s. e. 1/4 of sec. 2, and w. 1/4 of sec. 11 and n. w. 1/4 of sec. 14, all in twp. 14, range 2 east, under penalty of the law.
